Trails Illustrated : Covington/Alleghany Highlands (George Washington and Jefferson National Forest) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Covington/Alleghany Highlands (George Washington and Jefferson National Forest):

Worth the money.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Imperfect.By Hobo EddyJust perusing this map for a few minutes I found errors. The Andy Layne Trail does NOT start where depicted. The trail, across the road from the Andy Layne, from Rt. 779 to the North Mountain Trail, used to be part of the AT, but is not even on the map. The trail, extensively graded with rock steps, is still there and being used. The lower portion was re-routed over 10 years ago by a local couple. Most of the map is outside my area of experience, so I cannot judge whether there are other errors, as well. In all fairness, the ATC guidebook has several errors, as well.
