Who would have thought that I would need a guide book for the Bay? Well there is a ton of information that it would take several years of sailing the Bay to figure out. I keep this on my boat so when we head out we always have marina and anchorage information at our finger tips. I found a great marina to berth my boat due to the review of the marina and surrounding area that I may not have even given a second thought to! With this guide I am able to plan weekend getaways and some fun 3-4 day trips complete with where to stop, drop the hook or Great cruising guide for SF Bay sailors!By Russell OstIf you sail on the San Francisco Bay, this book will introduce you to a wide variety of destinations. It's like taking a seat at a local yacht club bar, and learning the best cruising spots from a room full of experienced SF Bay sailors.0 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Cruising Guide to SFO BayBy George R. FourchyAs mentioned under the '40 Famous Ships' review, I am a boat guy. I am currently boat-less, but that will be changing soon. It's been a long time since I was out on the bay, and there are new rules and regulations, along with many more pleasure boats than there were back in the '90s. This book will help fill in the gaps when I am out there again, and hopefully I won't cause any trouble for the other more experienced boaters I expect to see.

The definitive Guide for San Francisco Bay. In this updated and expanded second edition, this comprehensive cruising guide includes four more destinations outside the Bay: Pillar Point Harbor, Drakes Bay, Bodega Harbor, and Tomales Bay. For the more than 70 destinations covered, the authors give detailed instructions on how to get there safely, where to anchor or tie up, and what to do there.The Mehaffys have updated the information about the marinas and anchorages. Includes 30 harbor diagrams, over 200 photos. Indispensable for Bay boaters.

About the AuthorCarolyn and Bob Mehaffy had a boat moored in a marina in San Francisco Bay from 1969 to 1997, when they began a long-term cruise that will take them wherever the winds and their fancies blow. On their Hardin 45 staysail ketch, Carricklee, they have just completed a year in the Hawaiian Islands and another year in the waters of Puget Sound, Western Canada, and Alaska.
