Berlitz : Czech Phrase Book before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Czech Phrase Book:

By Torrealta
Czech is too hard for the transition from English phonics; without some class time in the language, interpreting the phrasebook is too hard. That's probably why this phrasebook was so hard to find. Czech sounds lovely, but when English phonics is applied to Czech spelling, the result is not pretty at all. If you're staying in Prague, English will get you by. Plenty of English is spoken, and the locals will get you someone who speaks it if they don't. Menus have English translations. Have fun in Prague!
