CabunocThe map was fantastic and was way more useful than the park map you get at the Visitor Center. It's got mileages, trails, and most importantly, tells you if the road is paved or not. The Naturalist Guide was just a laminated fold-out pamphlet of generic desert plants that wasn't useful to me as a plant geek, but may be interesting to a more casual or young explorer. Just get the regular map and save the money for the excellent visitor center book store.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Very good one except additionBy MaksymThe map itself is a very nice one. I'm very happy to have it. But this extra addition is a little bit not useful for me. I've expected a small book about animals and plants. Instead I got book about plants.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Four StarsBy Non De PlumeMust have guide to the area

The Death Valley National Park Adventure Set consists of a Pocket Naturalist Guide and National Geographic Map, ideal, lightweight references to take hiking or driving through this spectacular region. Waterford's beautifully illustrated guide highlights over 140 familiar and unique species of trees, shrubs, cacti and wildflowers also includes a map featuring prominent botanical sanctuaries. National Geographic's Death Valley National Park Trails Illustrated Map is a waterproof, tear-resistant map that features detailed topographic information of the region, useful traveling tips, plus up-to-date information on trails, roads, and points of interest.
