the Chicago area for 20 years, and there were a few things in here that I didn't know about, such as the American Girls Shop/ play in Chicago. But by and large, most of the Chicago area stuff I knew about. Where it really comes in handy is that many of the areas featured are within a few hours drive. Great if you're going to visit family and need something for the kids. We found all kinds of neat stuff about one of our favorite vacation spots in Door County, Wisconsin that we otherwise would have missed. One area that could stand to be improved - they have Chicago, then Northwestern Illinois (Galena etc). What about the 'burbs? There's a few little things here and there, but otherwise the whole Chicagoland area outside of the city limits is missed. I would also like to see more on restaurants. Chicago has a TON of restaurants, including the upscale but very cool Chicago Firehouse (actually built into a firehouse, complete with pole - saw Mayor Daley there!) and there are only 7 mentioned. All in all though, a good buy, and as I said, would make a great gift for a family with kids new to the area. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. LOVE all the FamilyFun Vacation Guides By Mary A. Mallon I have ALL of them. I use them to plan trips and for my local book (New England) I am picking away at it ... checking off everything we do. It's GREAT ... even though it's out dated .. some things have closed and there are new things that could be added. I just LOVE these books very helpful when traveling and planning things to do !!!! 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great vacation ideas! By T. Landreth This book provides great family vacation ideas for the Great Lakes area. Definitely a go-to resource for family vacation planning.
