NatGeo area maps -- what else would you expect from "National Geographic" ?By Vladamir ImpalerOpened up some new areas, with trails I had not previously known, and I am a Wyoming native. I've been going to the Gorge for a while, and found some new areas to explore. My grandson enjoys the fishing; I can drop him off with his tackle, then go four-wheeling for a few hours, and when I pick him up, his leader is holding that evening's dinner.A durable map; you can navigate successfully without any GPS. I always carry some paper topos, and cross-correlate areas I want to visit with the USGS maps, but this one can stand alone if you can only have one map.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Four StarsBy Yvette K.As described0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Very good quality mapBy akhI'm developing quite a collection of these Nat Geo/Trails Illustrated maps. They are printed on heavy, durable paper and incredibly detailed. Really a must for anyone venturing into National Park/Forest Service areas.

Waterproof Tear-Resistant Topographic MapThe red cliffs of the Green River's Flaming Gorge stretch from Wyoming's high deserts to the wooded slopes of Utah's Uinta Mountains. Expertly researched and created in partnership with local land management agencies, National Geographic's Trails Illustrated map of Flaming Gorge National Recreation Area provides an unparalleled tool for exploring this magnificent region. Some of the key areas of interest featured on this map include Lucerne Valley; Firehole Canyon; Sheep Creek Canyon Geological Area; Red Fleet and Steinaker state parks; and a portion of the Little Hole National Recreation Trail.Designed with a wide range of visitors in mind, this map features detailed topography with contour lines, shaded relief and elevations; easy-to-read trails that are marked according to use; clearly defined, color-coded boundaries of state parks, wildlife areas, conservation areas, Indian reservations, and private land; and an accurate road network. If you're taking in the scenery by car, several scenic byways and backways are labeled including Flaming Gorge?Uintas, Flaming Gorge?Green River Basin, Sheep Creek Spirit Lake Loop, Sheep Creek Geologic Loop, and Browns Park. Some of the many recreation features noted include campgrounds, trailheads, interpretive trails, river access, boat launches, marinas, fishing access, and cross country ski areas.Every Trails Illustrated map is printed on "Backcountry Tough" waterproof, tear-resistant paper. A full UTM grid is printed on the map to aid with GPS navigation.Other features found on this map include: Ashley National Forest, Black Mountain, Blacks Fork, Flaming Gorge Dam, Flattop Mountain, Marsh Peak, Uinta Mountains.Map Scale = 1:75,000Sheet Size = 25.5" x 37.75"Folded Size = 4.25" x 9.25"
