13 of 13 people found the following review helpful. Best travel guide to EcuadorBy L. HarrisonOf the five guides I've used on Ecuador, this is the best. Great maps and extensive city/town coverage. Tips on travel and travel times, restaurants, hotels and sights. Good work with adventure and ecotourism as well. If you're tired of the "budget" guides, this one's for you. 1 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Ecuador Galapagos Handbook by Alan Murphy By A Customer If you are going to Ecuador, get this book. It has everything! 0 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Great book! By Nate Seefeldt She is in Ecuador now and loves having this along with her. The spots are really helpful and takes you to interesting places

The award-winning Footprint Handbooks series has been capturing worldwide attention and admiration for 75 years! Now this excellent series has been revamped to better serve world travelers. With its larger typeface, color sections and maps, bigger trim size, and travel-tough covers, Footprint Handbooks are more durable and easier to use. The series still is the best resource for comprehensive maps and vital information, making Footprint Handbooks indispensable tools for world travelers. Air and land transportation information Recommendations for restaurants and places to stay for any budget Highlights of virtually every site and town, including local history, culture, customs, and etiquette Money-saving tips and advice on staying healthy.

Footprint Handbooks, the best of the best! -- Le Monde, Paris Head, spine and shoulders ahead of the rest. -- Adventure Travel From the Inside Flap The Footprint Ecuador Galapagos Handbook will guide you around this most manageable of South American countries. Here, in one day, you can watch the dawn break over the jungle canopy, have lunch in Quito high in the Andes, then watch the sun set over the Pacific. About the Author Like Scott of the Antarctic 100 years before, Alan Murphy's "Voyage of Discovery" originated in the Scottish city of Dundee. Following his degree in Political Science and History, he travelled extensively throughout South America. Alan then took up residence in La Paz working for the fledgling Bolivian Times newspaper. He now lives in Bath.
