

[Download] Free L.A. The Ultimate Free Fun Guide to the City of Angels (Los Angeles)

Free L.A. The Ultimate Free Fun Guide to the City of Angels (Los Angeles)

Robert Stock

*ePub / DOC / audiobook / ebooks / Download PDF

 Download

 Read Online

#5903239 in Books CorleyGuide 2004-07-07Original language:EnglishPDF # 1 .63 x 3.88 x 8.50l, #File Name: 0970624212288 pages | File size: 39.Mb

Robert Stock : Free L.A. The Ultimate Free Fun Guide to the City of Angels (Los Angeles) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Free L.A. The Ultimate Free Fun Guide to the City of Angels (Los Angeles):

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. great valueBy HuggleA surprisingly large number of festivals, exhibitions, concerts etc. in LA are free. This book lists them by month.If you don't have much money to spend this handy little book is an excellent investment. There are quite a lot of things listed there that are suitable for children as well. You can have a lovely day out with the whole family at the cost of just a bus ticket.Highly recommendable for unemployed, students, young families and everyone else who needs to hold their cents together.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy J. MartinA+++0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Save your moneyBy jeanvI find this book to be too far out of date to really be helpful, it has a 2004 copyright date. A lot happens in 7 years around a big city like LA. I tried looking up information on several of the given websites and couldn't find anything. I would save my money and look for something more current.

Looking for fun in Los Angeles but don't want to spend big bucks? FREE L.A. details hundreds of free fun things to do in the L.A. area, from Hollywood to Malibu to Pasadena. Discover free museums, free botanical gardens, free festivals, free films, free concerts and more. Whether you're looking for fun in the sun or for something free and easy to do during major holidays, FREE L.A. is a perfect travel planner for tourists and residents alike. Treat the family to a free movie under the stars or bring a date to a free Playboy Jazz concert. Visit LA's top museums for free or take free tours of historic LA landmarks. FREE L.A. has more than 350 free fun things to choose from. Written and researched by a crew of savvy L.A. travel writers, each event and venue is described in a breezy style that's packed with details, including tips on parking and kid-friendly places. FREE L.A. also features the Thomas Guide map coordinates for every write-up, so finding the free fun is easy. As car-crazy Angelenos know, Rand McNally's Thomas Guide is the ultimate way to navigate your way through L.A.'s freeway maze. FREE L.A. is simple to use with five distinct sections. In Annual Events you'll find hip descriptions of ethnic celebrations, aviation expos, nature festivals, gem shows and more in a January to December format. Holiday Events covers Lunar New Year parades, Earth Day fests, Cinco de Mayo fiestas, July 4th fireworks, Halloween howls and Christmas boat parades. Extra Events features concerts, films, gardening goodies and ongoing happenings. Venues details dozens of museums, botanical gardens and historic places. All free. The Indexes section includes an alphabetical index so you can find every free fun thing to do by name. A location index lets you search by community with cross-references to the Thomas Guide map coordinates. Whether you're a tourist or a resident, with FREE L.A., you'll find something free to do every day.

"From concerts to film screenings to parades to carnivals--this fit-in-a-small-purse guide to freebies in L.A. has something for everyone." -- Shel Horowitz,"This well-researched, well-organized little book is packed with info and has all the inside scoopFree L.A. is [an] indispensable guide." -- BargainsLA.com, Suzanne O'Connor June 2004Free L.A. [is] the ultimate resource for getting the best out of Los Angeles and suburbs. -- GreenLightWriteFree L.A. comes in a slim package; perfect to take with you as you travel around! A great guide. -- Book CafI am the queen of all things thrifty. Without reservation, Free L.A. does it for me. -- Carolyn Howard-Johnson, author of The Frugal Book PromoterThere is information in Free L.A. for every interest. -- TheRebecca .comThis well-researched, well-organized little book is packed with info and has all the inside scoop [an] indispensable guide. -- BargainsLA.com, Suzanne O'ConnorFrom the PublisherFREE L.A. is a Benjamin Franklin Award Finalist for Best Travel Book 2004!About the AuthorAbout the Editor Troy Corley, an L.A. resident for more than 20 years, is an independent journalist who has written about the Los Angeles area for numerous publications including FamilyFun, Parents, Travel Leisure Family and LA Parent magazines as well as the Los Angeles Times. Former senior writer for America Online's Digital City Los Angeles, Ms. Corley has combed the L.A. metro area for unique fun free things to do. As a mother of two with a penchant for saving a dollar, Ms. Corley has taken her family on numerous FREE L.A. adventures and shares her passion for them in this twist on a traditional travel guide. About the Contributors Robert Stock is a Los Angeles native. He has done news, sports, business, and public relations writing for over 10 years and teaches business writing at Pierce College. An avid basketball fan and player, he enjoys hiking, cooking, and reading. He also likes to tend his garden using the FREE compost from the Las Virgenes Water District. He lives in Calabasas with his wife Linda and daughter Sara. Alisha Semchuck, a Chicago native, now resides in Southern California where she works as a staff writer for Palmdales Antelope Valley Press. She entered journalism in the mid '80s, initially reporting for a weekly paper in Lake Zurich, Illinois before joining the staff of several California papers including the Ventura County Star. She loves warm and fuzzy animal stories. A native of Los Angeles, Joe Tortomasi has written for Westways Magazine, the Orange County Register and the Los Angeles Times.Recently he has been following the Seabiscuit saga. Until his literary ship comes in, the author can be reached through his bookie. Susan Carrier migrated from West Virginia to Southern California immediately after college 28 years ago. She loves exploring the area's diverse neighborhoods and cultural attractions and frequently writes about them for Sunset Magazine and the Los Angeles Times, as well as other publications. She lives in Altadena with her husband, teenage daughter, a dog and a cat. A produced playwright and published short story writer, Desiree Zamorano teaches Multicultural Ed to teachers, and writing to elementary students in between writing novels. She loves her native Southern California and is always up for a FREE event with her husband and children. Though born in Montreal, Quebec, Ron O'Brien is virtually a native Californian. He knows the Golden State intimately, having lived and worked in Northern, Central and Southern California for more than four decades. A Grammy-nominated producer music historian, he has written extensively for major record labels and produced numerous historical albums. An LA Kings fan, he still plays ice hockey weekly in a local adult league. He lives with his partner Troy and their two children, Tristan Emelia, in Ojai, CA.