Series):

This family-friendly travel guide to Turkey is a full colour, on-the-ground, practical book containing all the fun, exciting and useful information parents need for a trouble free holiday for memories to last a lifetime. Although there are many traditional travel guides including elements about travelling with a family, there are no specific guidebooks on the market targeting families and addressing the needs and requirements for a family on holiday. The With Your Family series is aimed at providing families with a fun, exciting, personal and informative guide to some of the most family friendly destinations. The guides are practical, on-the-ground tools, which will help families make the most of their time away and create family memories to last a lifetime.. Discover a destination with: Traditional villages to buzzing cosmopolitan cities Bustling resorts with child-friendly beaches Spectacular mountains, valleys and forests to explore Numerous music, dance and cultural festivals Opportunities for sailing, diving and water sports An excellent range of family-friendly restaurants and hotels
