Three StarsBy Ashley Ryan StephenWhile it contains useful information and some interesting suggestions, the book needs an update.2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Fun With The Family in IndianaBy A CustomerI thought this book gave very good descriptions and fun things to do with the family in northern IN. However, I did find an error in a phone number which made it difficult to locate the Hannah Lindahl Children's Museum. The phone number is 219-254-4540. Also the city was misspelled. It should read Mishawaka. Otherwise, a good resource.The top ten picks were a good mix of things to do indoors and outdoors and all could be done in a day trip or less depending on your starting location.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Easy to useBy Lisa R. WilsonBook is divided into five areas: central, western, eastern, northern, and southern. I found it easy to locate places to go based on region. Book also includes places to eat and stay.

According to the Travel Industry Association of America, almost half of all trips taken in the U.S. include children. Globe Pequot's Fun with the Family "TM" series (formerly Family Adventure Guides "TM") caters to this growing market. Like asking a trusted friend for advice, this series gives the low-down on the most entertaining and educational places to go with younger children.
