Joseph Cali : The Complete Guide to the Ultimate Family Road Trip before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Complete Guide to the Ultimate Family Road Trip:

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. 2015 UPDATE? LIFE MOVES ON I GUESSBy joIt seems to me this book was put out as an activity commemorating their family road trip. There are useful tips that can be applied to any trip but there are a number of them that are outdated being that some trips took place many years before the book was published also technology and internet were not as common and advanced like they are now , The website they created in conjunction with the book is outdated as well however, keeping in mind their children are now adults and would assume they are on their own and so it appears that this book is a doing of the past with no continual family updates or newer editions(that's why I gave it three stars). I must add that there is a section in this book that is called 5 lessons I learned from travelling by the author's daughter these pages are worth gold they are worth being put into a beautiful frame! it sums up about what spending real quality family time is. If she ever puts out a book on traveling let me know I would buy it in a flash.

"This book will change the way you think about family vacations. Find out how taking a family road trip can change your life" Joe Cali In addition to several amusing anecdotes and stories from over 15 years on the road together, this book is packed full of valuable tips, recommendations, suggestions and ideas for things to do on a family road trip. Including the Cali family's personal recommendations for the best family road trip ideas for every state in the U.S. A step-by-step guide to planning a family road trip, detailed sample itineraries of the Cali family's Top 10 U.S. road trips and a host of unique things to do, and places to see, are included in this 350 page book. Finally, the book includes travel stories from four unique and different perspectives: the Dad, the Mom, the teenage daughter, and the 13-year old son.

About the Author Joe Cali has a passion for travel. Along with his wife, Wendy, and their children Christie and Josh, the Cali family has traveled extensively. Together as a family, the Cali's have traveled to 46 U.S. states and 20 foreign countries. He estimates that the family has driven over 100,000 miles together during family road trips. Joe has even found a way to incorporate travel into his career. Since 1999, he has worked at Grand Circle Travel Corporation, the nations' largest travel company catering exclusively to older Americans. Joe is currently the Executive Vice President of Strategic Planning for the company. Throughout his career, Joe has been quoted in several newspapers and magazines (including National Geographic Traveler and USA Today), and has been interviewed on Boston news programs, for his opinion on world travel trends. Although Joe is listed as the primary author of this book, it was a complete family project; with contributions from Wendy, who helped edit, as well as Christie, the punctuation queen, and Josh who provided many ideas and stories for this book. The Cali family resides in Southborough, Massachusetts,. The family often spends weekends in Hardwick, Vermont. Each year the family vacations in, ...well.....everywhere.
