Guide: Essential Skills for Budget Travel (Non Fiction):

Created with the overland budget traveler in mind, this ultimate travel companion is brimming with hundreds of tips and insights to make travel more enjoyable and worry-free. Compiled from years of research and the travel experience of its authors, The Globetrotter's Guide is an easy-to-read compendium that guides travelers through every stage of their trip, from conception to safe return.

"This invaluable travel guide is packed full of practical information, humorous anecdotes, amusing illustrations and personal experiences that make it an easy read." -- Canadian Traveller "An excellent introduction to travel basics, especially for those who want to travel independently and are on a tight budget." -- Globe and Mail "All kinds of useful stuff. This book tells you how to stay out of trouble, or get into it . . ." -- Vicki Gabereau "I hope I have some exotic place to travel to this year so I can take this advice." -- CBC Morning, CBCTV "To be a well-informed traveller is to be a safe traveller, and this book has it all. Great advice." -- WTN Weekday "There's stuff here you'll never find in your average guidebook. . . . If you are a budget traveller and, more important, are planning on embarking on that world trip alone, take a companion along. The Globetrotter's Guide will be more than just a friend." -- Ottawa Citizen "Will . . . help prepare you for the types of bizarre situations that you, as an independent traveller, will invariably face." -- Toronto Star "Don't leave the continent without it." -- BC Bookworld

About the Author Wayne Smits is a self-confessed wanderer whose interest in travel put him on the road at an early age. He has traveled all over the world, most commonly in Latin America, and he ran a successful import-export company for several years. Today, when he's not writing or traveling, he lectures on travel safety and security for such organizations as the International Youth Hostel Association. Caryl E. Dolinko, having traveled on her own to more than sixty countries in the last fifteen years, teaches travel courses in Vancouver and is a frequent radio talk show guest. Caryl is also an avid travel photographer whose photos have been shown in cafe's and galleries, and have been purchased by businesses and publications across Canada.
