Brigid Hains : The Ice and the Inland: Mawson, Flynn, and the Myth of the Frontier before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Ice and the Inland: Mawson, Flynn, and the Myth of the Frontier:

A study of how the frontier became etched in the Australian imagination in the early-20th century in the image of folk heroes. It focuses on the mythology surrounding two such heroes - Douglas Mawson, legendary Antarctic explorer, and John Flynn, founder of the outback Flying Doctor Service.

About the Author Brigid holds a PhD in history and a graduate diploma in museum studies, is the lecturer in public history at Monash University in Victoria, Australia.
