Kelly Monaghan : The Insiders Guide to Air Courier Bargains: How to Travel World- Wide for Next to Nothing before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Insiders Guide to Air Courier Bargains: How to Travel World- Wide for Next to Nothing:

From Library JournalCouriers accompany time-sensitive business documents and cargo on scheduled, mostly international, passenger flights in exchange for big discounts on air fare. There are disadvantages to being a courier, as the author points out: the courier seldom knows what the cargo is, must be available on short notice, is usually permitted only carry-on luggage, and must be willing to travel alone to and from gateway cities only. This book lists and describes companies and agents who hire freelance couriers. It is a straightforward guide suitable for large travel collections.- Harold M. Otness, Southern Oregon State Coll.
