This is a copy of a book first published in 1923 but is out of copyright. The copying is poor as some pages are missing and many pictures have been omitted. The area described is that part of south Arabia that became British following the delimitation agreement with Turkey in 1902. The book is divided into sections dealing with the land (deserts and valleys), the clans and means of travel. Pity the reproduction wasn't better.

A young political officer's colourful adventures in the Aden hinterland at the turn of the last century.
